Yearbook Committee

I consider it a privilege and an honour to be editor of the Green and Gold '68. I would like to express my sincere feelings of gratitude to the other members of the yearbook committee and staff who helped in publishing this yearbook. I would also like to thank all the patrons who made the publishing of this yearbook possible. I do hope that we, the yearbook committee, have in a small way shown the public some of the things that have been accomplished by our Collegiate.

We, the yearbook committee, have decided to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. H. D. Froese for his service and assistance to this Collegiate.

Principal's Message

In a society which has become increasingly more technical, more systematic and more materialistic, the common human elements of warmth, understanding, affection and humour are that much more invaluable. They breed an atmosphere of co-operation, of broadmindedness and of happiness. I wish to thank particularly my staff and colleagues for bringing a large portion of these qualities to the school and student body, always with dignity, light-heartedness and kindness. In my estimation, they have done much to enhance the role of teachers, in the eyes of students, particularly when viewed in the light of true professionalism.

To the students, I again wish to express sincere thanks for the co-operation you have shown throughout the year, and the spirit with which you have participated in all aspects of the school program. You are the measuring stick of a school such as ours, and, although we are faced with various disadvantages because of our size, we feel that one of the important advantages we have in our school is that you leave here, year after year, with the kind of attitude that you have. An attitude not directed towards intolerance, selfishness, or pettiness; an attitude not prepared to rebel bitterly against the so-called "Establishment"; but one which is based on sound judgment, on learned self-discipline; one which seeks to improve the self and society, and is prepared to work for a common good to all. It is only at this stage of development that academic success can provide opportunities towards lasting achievements.

These pages are a mere sketch of part of the life at our school this last year. May they bring back pleasant memories and a proper amount of nostalgia, to all of us, many years hence.

INSPECTOR'S COMMENTS

My congratulations to you and your Staff for the time and energy that is required in the production of this yearbook. I have no doubt about its success.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the players and coaches who have been active in the different sports. In any sport, as it is in life, it is not "the winning" but "the playing the game" that matters.

This has been a dramatic year for Canadians. It is our Centenary. Our pioneers were faced with the task of forging the physical unity from vast sprawling expanses of 1867. They built, by hard work and enterprise, the railways, the highways, the shipping, and the air service that conquered the barriers of distance. These achievements were accomplished by hard work and intelligence.

It is important that we know our History. Canadians have made a vital contribution to Two World Wars, to the cause of freedom and peace, and have played a leading role in the preservation of peace. While Confederation is one hundred years old, the settlement dates back three and one-half centuries, during which time the founding peoples, first the French, and then British, then both together, then with peoples of other origins have co-existed and co-operated.

The latter part of the Centennial Anthem has these lines—

"So may we show the world a vision of goodness,
Our dream of Man to which all men yet awaken
And share the glory still with thee."

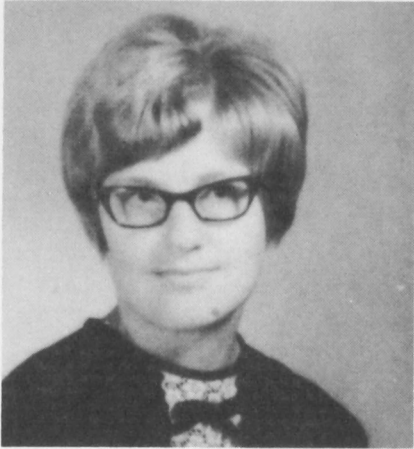

As Sir Oliver Mowat said in 1892: I hope that when another century has been added to the age of Canada it may still be Canada, and that its second century shall like its first be celebrated by Canadians, unabsorbed-numerous, prosperous, powerful and at peace.

THE VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

by Anne Froese

My Fellow graduates have entrusted to me this privilege of speaking to you in their behalf on this our graduation day.

Someone has defined the word "success" as — something that always comes faster to the man your wife almost married but success is also completing Grade Twelve. The completion of high school successfully has given us just a taste of success — and it does taste wonderful. However, High School is only a small challenge compared to the greatest challenge of all — Life. Will success always be ours in life? No. Life would not be life without some failures or frustrations. How are we going to face these? We must be prepared to take failure as it comes, put it aside and keep going on. I know I can truthfully say that at some time or another all of us have had a taste of failure and know the defeated feelings it brings with it. However, the encouragement of a friend or of parents have enabled us to get up and try again. We are thankful to those of you who have given us encouragements through our high school years.

We are young and have life before us. We need to be guided and steered along life's many roads. We need to be warned of the pitfalls on the road, steered around and encouraged to go on courageously.

We would like to thank our teachers for their concern and guidance they have given us on the High School Road. Without you we would not be graduating. You have taught and retaught, always keeping our future in mind and struggling with us to reach the goal set before us in high school.

We also want to express our deep gratitude to our parents, who have stood behind us these twelve long years of adolescence. They have helped us in our homework, encouraged us when we needed encouragement, and supplied our everyday needs of life. However, mostly we are thankful to God for His wonderful goodness and grace to mankind. Is it not He who is the great supplier of our needs? Truly He deserves the greatest appreciation of all.

Now as we stand at the Threshold of adult life, we are amazed at the many responsibilities and demands it requires of us. We need your further guidance, teachers, friends and parents. Most of all, we need your prayers. God is willing to be our Guide through all of life if we are but willing to yield and bid him to be our Guide. Once again, I thank you.

Mr. Driedger: His favorite punch line "Well, maybe we should do some Chemistry." "I don't want to make any idle threats but . . .!" His favorite lunch: cheeseburger and French fries. His Park Street mansion is fast being completed. Has a strong shoulder which the students can rely on being there, when they need it to cry on. Love those homework assignments. Seems to have one favorite group with him for after four detentions.

SENIORS

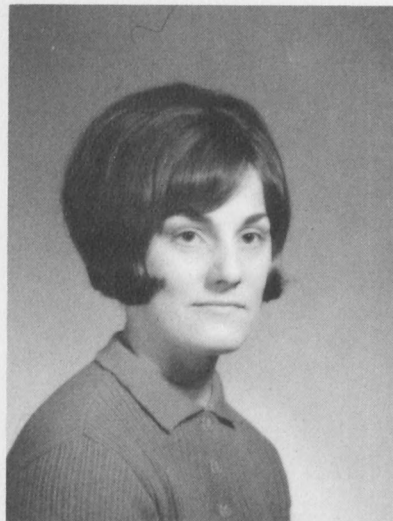

KEN HOLME:

School without Ken would be like a horse without a carriage. He embarked on a 5-year School Plan and is considering to expand it. He "came from behind" and regained his former position as President of the Student Council. He is also the Editor of the yearbook. His regular attendance is interrupted only during the fall hunting season. A great "team-man" in sports.

KATHY MARTENS:

Our capable school-librarian. She is "sweet and innocent" and reserved and has absolute faith in humanity. That is why she is contemplating, entering the teaching profession. She competes with Irma for getting in the most hours of homework. She is active in I.S.C.F. work and much appreciated in that organization.

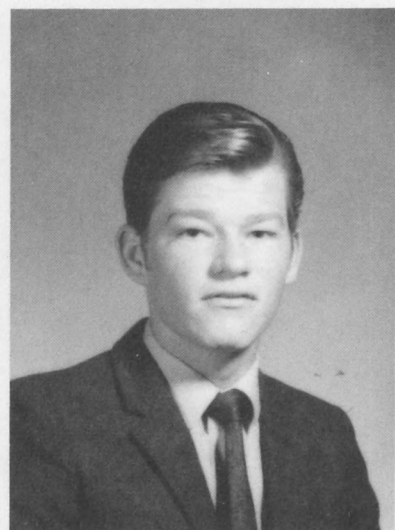

IRMA FROESE:

A model student. Her smile and pleasing manners are as refreshing to teachers as is her good work. She is a pillar of strength in the I.S.C.F. organization, and Ken's "right hand girl" in the yearbook Committee. She is equally successful in all subjects and plans to bring cheer and aid to "unfortunates", as a nurse.

BILLY FRIESEN:

The third party in what the teachers sarcastically refer to as the "wash-room trio". Has a difficult time drilling some Maths into Len's head. Blushes readily — find girls more of an object of humour than a necessary part of society. Between Leonard and Billy, the world is a barrel of laughs.

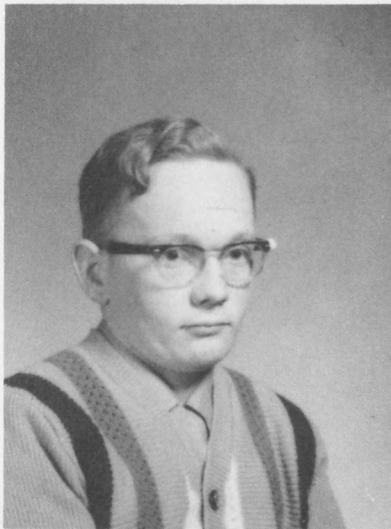

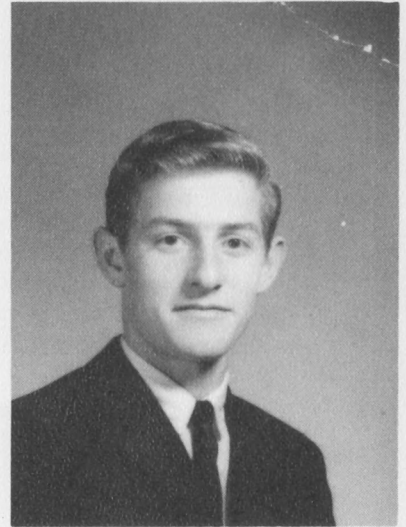

EDWIN FALK:

Did his good deed the day after he got his "drivers" by paying for the paint on a stop sign. His translations in German are good if only he could overcome his spelling complex. Frequently has a wrestling match in the Grade 10 room. Often seen travelling to St. Pierre in his '51 Chev, on a Saturday night. The thermostat operator in Gr. XII.

HERMAN FROESE:

Herman finds great pleasure in teasing the Grade 11 girls. He is noted for his "unusual" marks. Herman is outwardly shy, but good-natured. Unlike anybody else, he and Leonard walk out after each class and have a 5-minute break. His favourite subject is Chemistry.

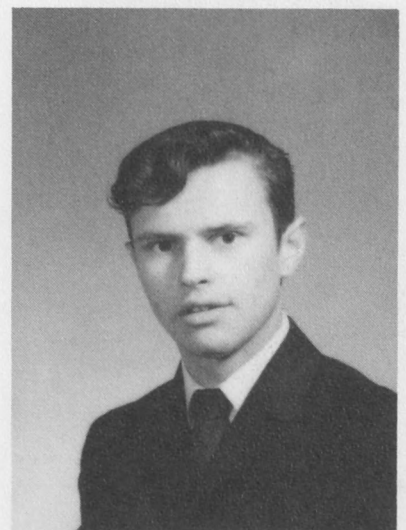

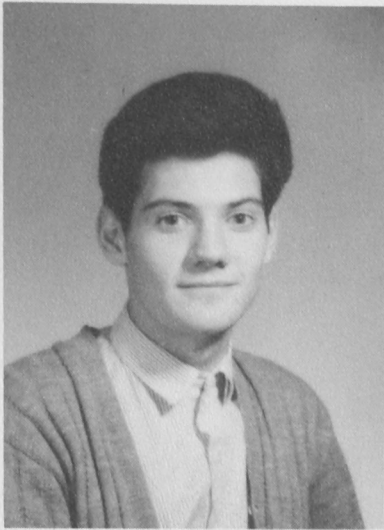

FRANK WIENS:

Frank's policy of study is one of perseverance; his reasoning is that after his third year of Grade XI Literature he should or might make it. Although he moves slowly at times he lets loose and treats some of the pavement on the streets to some rubber. His seldom done Biology assignments never fail to shock the teachers.

GEORGE FUNK:

Claims to have the fastest right hook in school and sometimes goes as far as to prove it. A great conversationalist — only in the presence of Edwin. George is entirely immune to teachers' questions. His future is still undecided. Maths is his favourite subject.

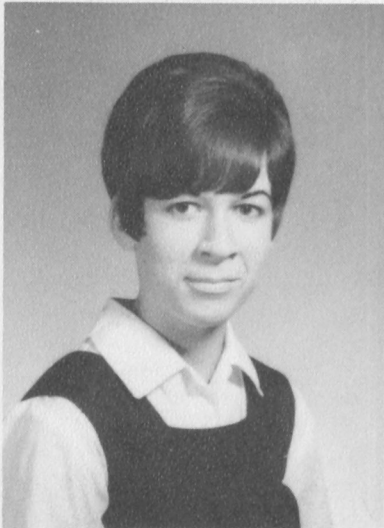

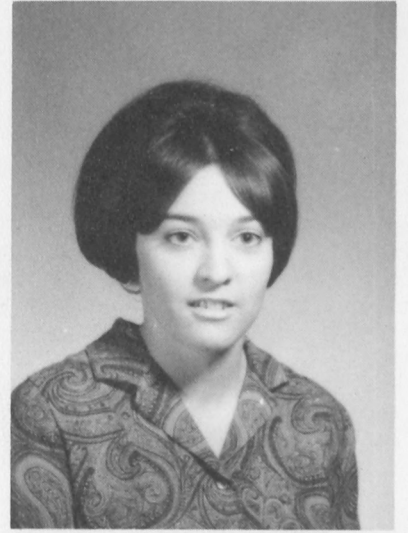

LEONARD JANZ:

There are only two things that give meaning to Leonard's life: his new 350 Honda, and Billy. Claims he doesn't know why he is here — a question often asked him by teachers. Leonard's motto is "Live and let live". He has no enemies. He is interested in mechanics.

AUDREY HILDEBRAND:

Has a mind of her own. Maths and Audrey don't mix. She was our attractive collegiate representative to the Snowflake Queen Contest. Her quick serve in volleyball is matched only by her quick tongue. Adds much strength to the girls athletic and cheerleading efforts. Plans to become an R.N. in the future.

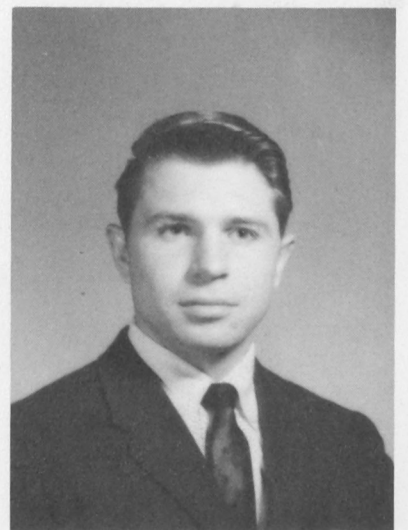

SHIRLEY SAWATSKY:

The motto of the girls' basketball team this year should have been "as Shirley scores, so goes the Basketball team". Shirley's great ability to make baskets proved a great asset to the team. Shirley not only excels in spirits but is also a good student in all subjects. Her only weakness as a student seems to be her inability to "beat the morning bell." She is secretary of the Student Council.

JOHN MYKYTUIK:

Sports convener and active participant of all sports activities. Frequently seen having serious talks with the teachers. Prefers the peace and quiet of a country life to that of the city. Much to his chagrin, his future ambitions have been foiled because of a lack of height. John's favourite subject is Maths.

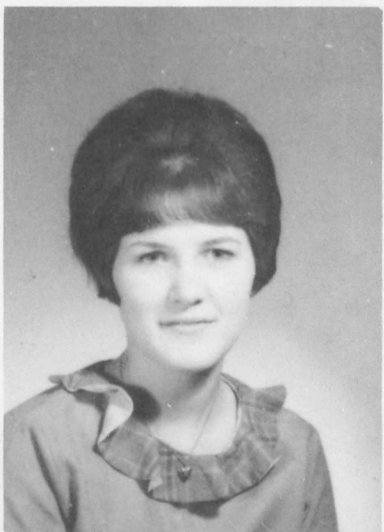

LEONARD FRIESEN:

Works hard during study periods — talking to Ken. Sports enthusiast. First term Student Council representative and Literary Committee convener. Leonard decided to make history by retaking Grade 11 History. He is easy to get along with. The only student who has his own table at the cafe. His favorite subject is Maths.

SHIRLEY HOLME:

The capable convener of the Social Committee. Her fiery temper is to be reckoned with, although it usually remains subdued by a charming smile and sweet disposition. She has her hands full, looking after brother Ken. "Why must they make Grade 12 so difficult?" If it wasn't for school, life would be a "ball".

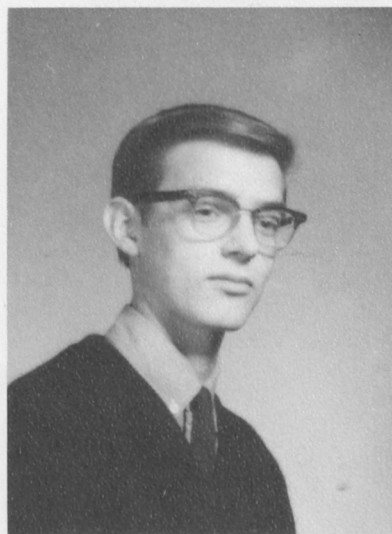

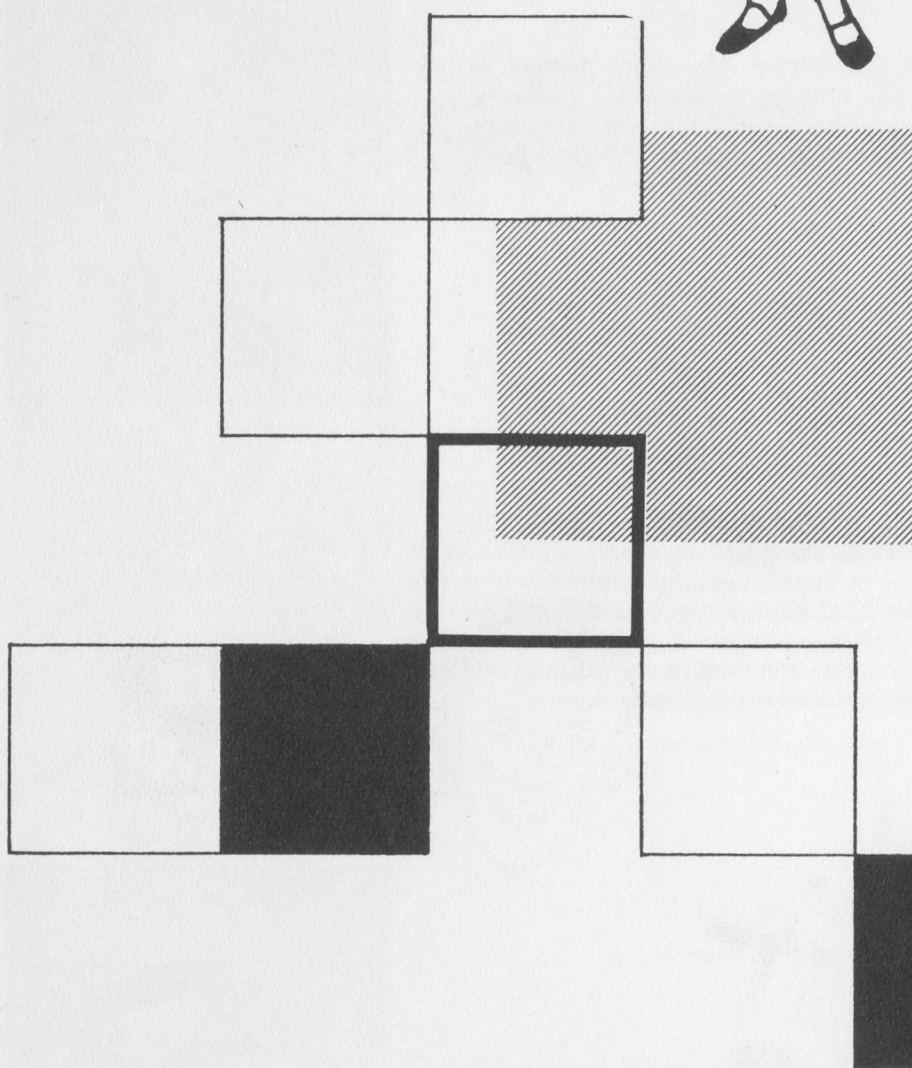

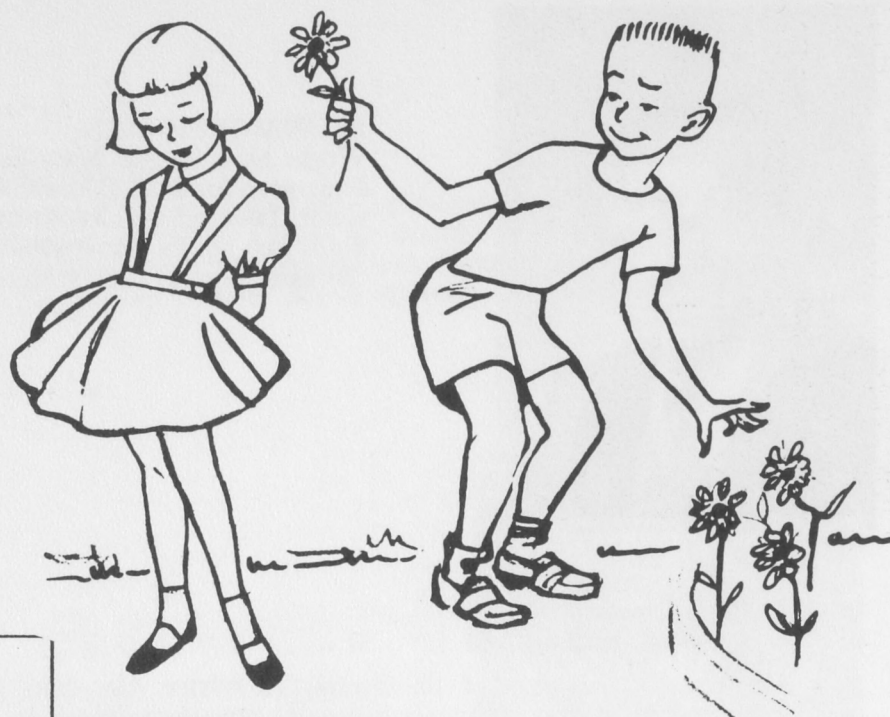

DORA ANNE KLASSEN:

Dora appears quiet, but wait till you know her. She bubbles over with joy — or anger — at the slightest occurrence. Dora is the Vice-President of the I.S.C.F. committee, and a real asset to the Yearbook executive. Her immediate ambition is to pass her Grade 12. Her favourite subject is Typing and her future ambition is to become a secretary. She plans to attend Briercrest next year.

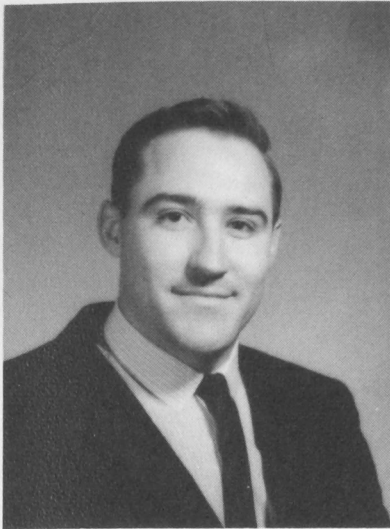

BOB FROESE:

One might call Bob the foremost political critic in Grunthal Collegiate because of his vast knowledge on current affairs. He would rather absorb the "philosophy" of American politics as found in Time magazine, than exert himself in his school subjects. His political inclinations were first evident when he emerged as winner of the school presidential elections in the first term.

Mr. Redekop: Spent his Easter holidays in Mexico. Enjoys school most if Mr. Driedger is missing. Always cheerful and gay; his sense of humor knows no bounds. Is frantically trying to enjoy life before the summer holidays. In every classroom, the center of attraction for him, has still not changed.

JOHNNY HILDEBRANDT:

Memorizes girls with charm, good looks, and discretion. Favourite expression: "All work and no play makes John a dull boy". Claims to live in destitution despite his weekend vacation. Plans to fulfill his destiny by becoming a teacher.

JULIE YURKOWSKI:

Julie to Doreen: "United we are strong, divided we must fall". When done an injustice she explodes into vociferous outcries. Claims she has nothing against boys and goes to great lengths to prove it. Vivacious and opinionated. Our popular Carnival Queen.

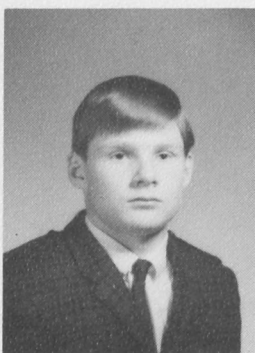

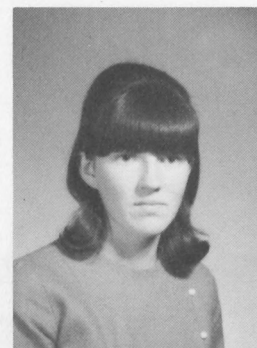

JIM MYKYTULK:

Finds himself at somewhat of a disadvantage in front of Wanda. One of the school's athletic stalwarts. Refuses to think about the future — including June exams.

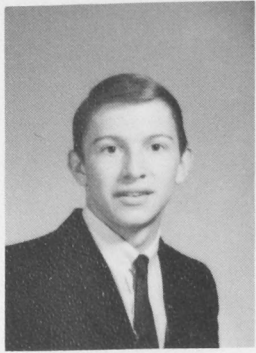

DOREEN MACZUGA:

Expresses her displeasure of a teacher's joke with exaggerated contortions of her face. Making Grade 11 has become an obsession with Doreen. Occasionally reveals her qualities of obstinacy in an argument. "Love is a many splendoured thing".

WILLIE FRIESEN:

Enjoys his greatest success in playing pranks on others (including teachers). His academic ambitions are as changeable as our Manitoba weather — and as hard to figure out. Comes through, generally, when the chips are down.

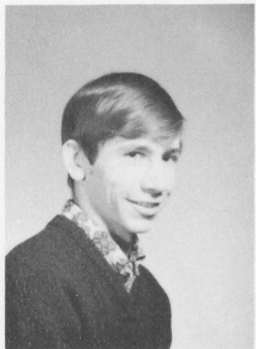

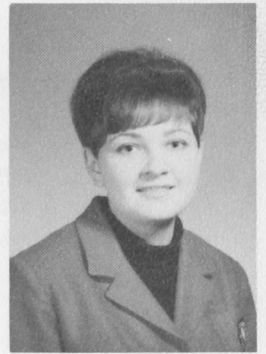

BARRY HILDEBRANDT:

The "sports" star of the collegiate. If his athletic achievements would match those of the academic field, he'd be a genius. However . . . ? ? ? Claims he doesn't need an education to become a school drop-out. Popular and pleasant wherever he goes.

PEARL FEECHUCK:

Pearl is perhaps best defined as an eccentric intellect. Her inquisitive nature frequently results in her becoming involved in embarrassing situations. Oft heard saying, "Let us eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow the teachers may resign."

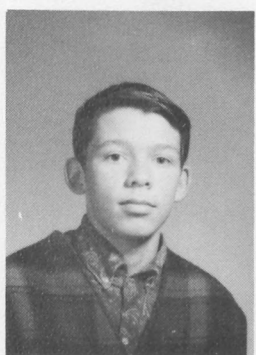

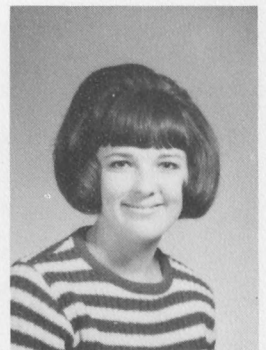

DENNIS GUENTHER:

Dennis finds humour in practically everything and keeps his classmates in a continual uproar. Geometry is a somewhat embarrassing subject. Trouble and Dennis go hand in hand. First term class rep.

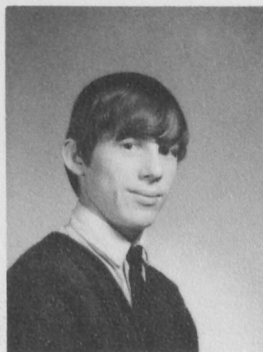

GRACIE KOHUT:

Gracie is one of the top ranking grade 11 students. Believes that week nights are a time to stay home and study, but wait until those weekends! Can often be found in a heated argument with Albert. She is generally pestered by all the boys.

BILLY SAWATSKY:

Better known as "Coop"! Ranks next to Albert only in height. Among the three fellows in the "joke-telling" corner, one is inevitably Billy. Mr. Driedger seriously considers declaring a school holiday whenever Billy does complete an assignment.

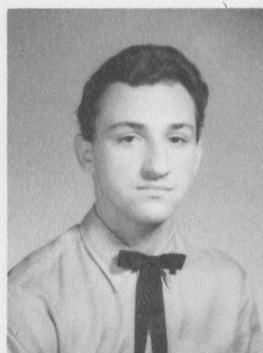

HENRY GIESBRECHT:

Recently acquired a car which is properly called "Henry's Bomb" He operates the school taxi for a nominal fee. Disagrees with the principal only on the matter concerning hair-cuts. Considers "retirement" from school and work after this year.

HELENE WARKENTIN:

Helene cannot be mistaken with her long tresses. She is good essay writer and finds composition classes delightful. Believes in homework — up to a point; and her assignments are completed as often as they aren't. Prides herself in being a source of frustration for Dennis.

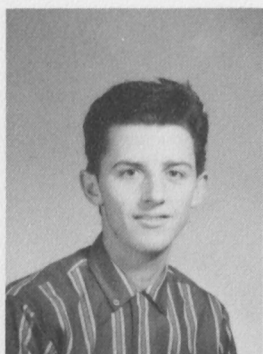

LARRY BLOCK:

Larry believes that when under fire from a teacher, the thing to do is to remain cool, calm and collected. In the end the student always emerges victorious. Larry, sitting in front of Henry, is often thought of as Henry's Protector. One of the defensive stalwarts of the basketball team.

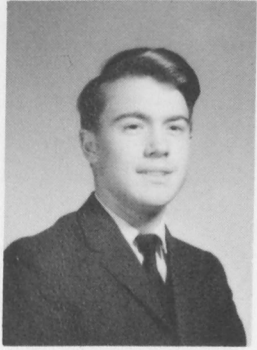

WANDA DOERKSEN:

Our school pianist. Occupies the back seat with pride and claims she would rather fight than switch. Along with Albert, manages to make the top marks in class. Gives Jim a pain in the neck — with her compass.

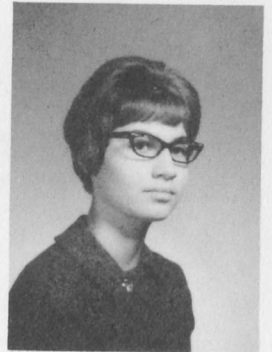

BOBBY SENKIW:

Bob prides himself on being the school Romeo. He makes very good attempts on his school work but more often than not his mind can be "observed" travelling to the grade ten class room.

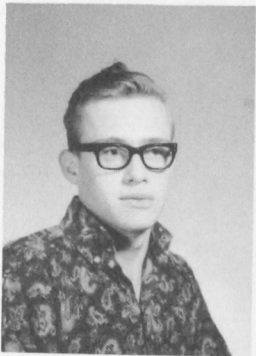

JOHNNY WARKENTIN:

Greatly interested in sports. Can't decide which is more frustrating — Maths or Chemistry or girls. A staunch supporter of the "Detention Corps". Is putting up a game fight with the Grade eleven curriculum.

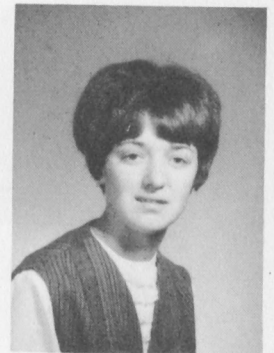

ELSIE JANZ:

Still waters run deep. Elsie is something of a mystery to the grade eleven class. She slips into school before nine, remains at her books all day and slips out of school at four. She is a hard-working and determined student.

LARRY GOERTZEN:

Somewhat of an introvert. Chooses his company carefully. Finds sports an intolerable burden — even more so than studies. His dream-world revolves around cars and hopes to find a future with them.

ANNE WIEBE:

Anne has the distinction of being the most pestered girl in the grade eleven room. Almost completely surrounded by boys, she is often the object of many of their pranks. Anne takes it all in good spirit and is looking forward to her "Day of Reckoning". Soft-spoken and fun-loving, Anne is liked by all.

HARRY WIEBE:

"These boots are made for walkin' ". Walks around school with a quiet, complacent manner as though he knows things nobody else does. Becomes "active" as soon as the teacher is out of the room. Gets along with everybody.

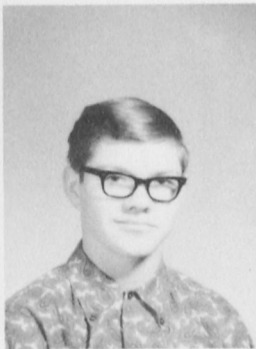

ALBERT DURKSEN:

A towering figure above the grade elevens in height and brains is Albert. Came from Argentina to find out how the Canadians lived. Now that he has been with us a year he wishes he hadn't. In class Albert can be found in a very relaxed position, helping the teachers with the lessons.

HILDEGARDE WARKENTIN:

Along with Helene holds the highest record for book reading in grade eleven. "Where there is Hildegard there is a book!" She somehow manages to complete all assignments on time and enjoys helping her friends around her.

ARTHUR KRAHN:

Recently acquired a car which "thrives" on oil. During the winter he was one of the caretakers of the "shack" but now finds himself unemployed. He seems to have a real problem with his History and German classes. Through continual practice is becoming the most effective thorn in Anne's side.

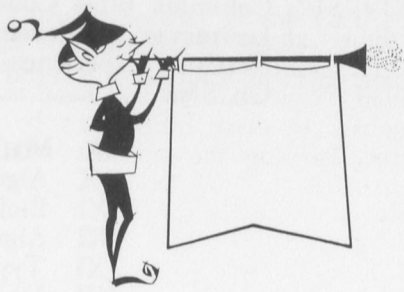

JANET PATRICK:

Occupies the seat directly in front of the teachers desk with pride. Here, she claims, one can get away with almost anything. Janet, together with Julie and Doreen have a daily discussion period lasting about three hours. She "battles".

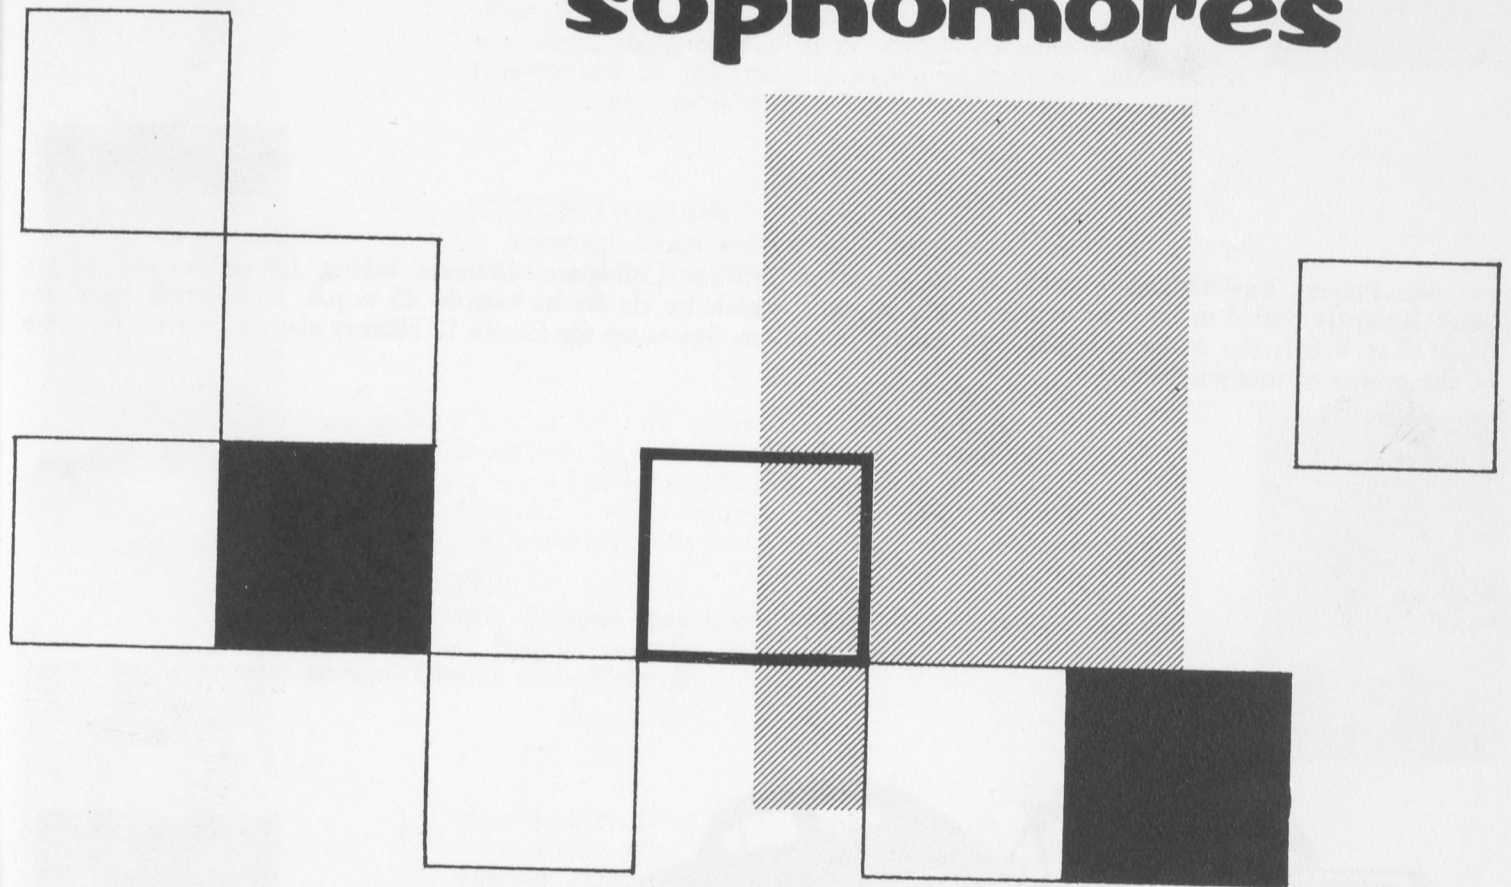

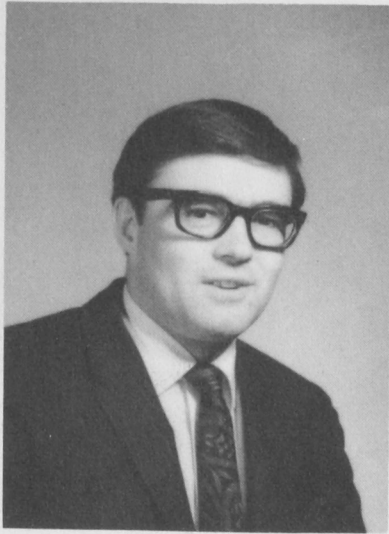

BERNIE FRIESEN:

Went on the Grade Eleven Student Exchange trip last year. He decided to come back and try for it again this year. Bernie prides himself on being the class muscle-man. Easy-going in work and play.

Spices up the Grade 12 History class with relating some of the events of modern history.

MINTIE MARTENS:

A faithful supporter of the I.S.C.F. Often finds herself in a fit of uncontrollable giggles much to the consternation of the boys. A good hard-working student.

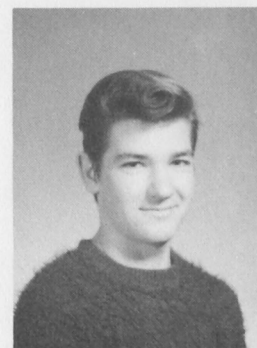

GERALD BRAUN:

Seldom heard but when he's not here he's missed. Wisdom and knowledge go hand in hand with Gerald. What others need, he can do without.

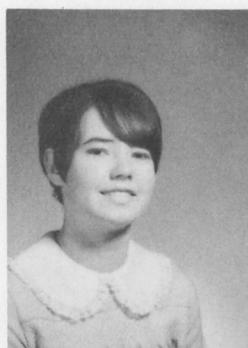

JUDITH FRIESEN:

A happy-go-lucky soul with a twinkle in her eye and a smile on her lips. She seems to enjoy work and makes good marks.

PETER BEZDITNY:

Despises homework. Believes that brute strength can overcome intelligence. Is quiet — talks only when teachers are not around. Chums with Richard.

BARBIE GUENTHER:

The kind of girl that finds money in the wastebasket. Jessie's partner in the daily lunch-box raids. Her favourite saying; "I don't want you, I want my mother."

ANDREW MARTENS:

His sarcasm and wit are hard to match. Struggles for the higher marks which he claims he deserves.

SHIRLY DYCK:

She is proud of being the grade 10 "Tomboy". The boys claim she doesn't fight fair — she fights like a boy. Helen's companion through thick and thin.

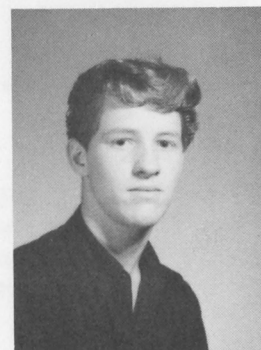

LESLIE SCHROEDER:

Enthusiastic about all sports. Took a short unscheduled holiday in fall. Spring has definitely arrived when his "Pontiac" becomes mobile.

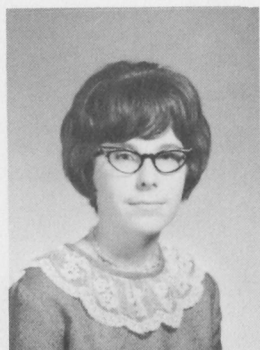

THERESA CHERNECKI:

One of those swinging types — when she feels like swinging. Usually pesters Brian during class. Shocked the boys when she cut short her long golden "tresses".

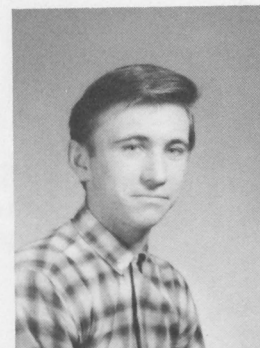

BILLY FUNK:

Billy loves attention and will do anything to attract it, but once he's got it he doesn't know what to do with it. Well noted for his "smart remarks".

ESTER ESAU:

She's the only brain in our class. Seems shy and quiet but looks are deceiving. The only one who makes use of her studies. A staunch I.S.C.F. member.

RICHARD KLASSEN:

Seems bewildered when questioned by teachers. Often loses his temper when he has arguments with Helen.

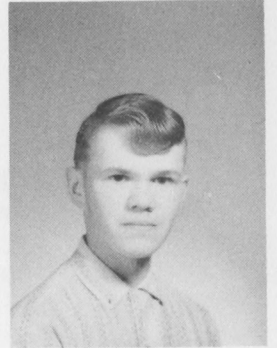

MARGARET BOSCHMAN:

Prefers school hours to her leisure hours. Enjoys studying. Her pet "peeve" is to become a great pianist; she'll probably make it too.

LARRY WIENS:

Takes Mondays off to recover from the weekend. Experiments with various interesting hair-styles. His lack of stature is made up by his verbal inclinations. Better known as "Smiley".

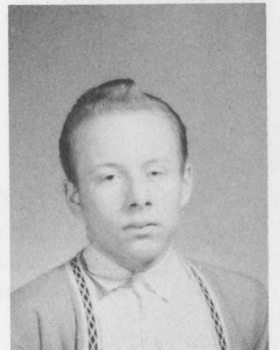

NETTIE FUNK:

She's a great asset to the volleyball and basketball teams. Her friendly personality is admired by all. Fights a "running" battle with Billy.

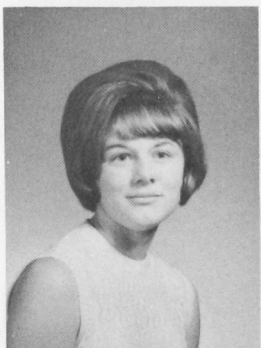

WILLIE WIEBE:

He's got a good memory but it's kind of short. One of the few boys who has got that feminine characteristic of giggling. The "strong man" of the class. Good at sports.

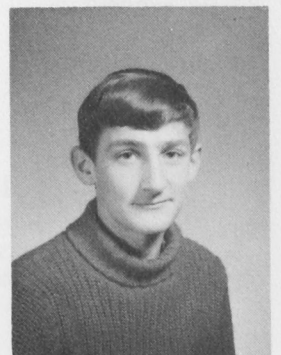

DARLENE PYLYPUIK:

A vivacious chatterbox. Explains herself best in Ukrainian. Good in all sports. Frequently has a giggling contest with Terry.

VERNON FROESE:

Pretends to be shy but we know otherwise. He's proud to be one of the Froese clan, and upholds their admirable scholastic record.

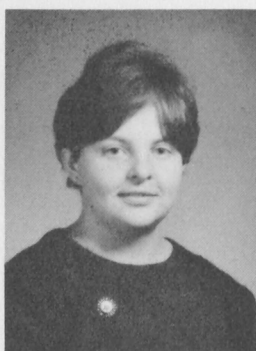

JESSIE BRAUN:

Seems to enjoy her return to our collegiate. A friendly lass who throws a lot of "curves" at you. One of our cheerleaders.

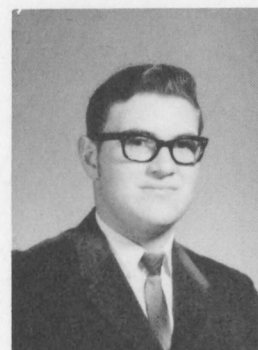

JOHN TOEWS:

Always seems to find himself seated in a place surrounded by girls, not that he really minds. A serious student and future basketball star.

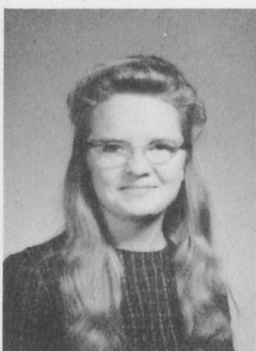

MARY KRAHN:

Shares most of her conversation with Hilda. Somewhat shy and quiet but works hard to try and "overcome" her grade 10 studies.

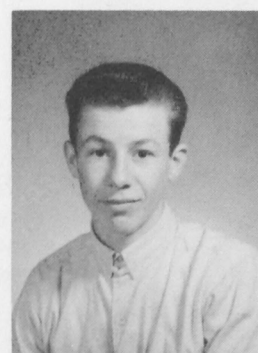

LLOYD KLASSEN:

Finds it impossible to stay away from the town's business places. Eats sunflower seeds as naturally and as often as some people breathe. A good student.

ELIZABETH REIMER:

Occasionally finds herself tangled up in her hair. She's very mysterious about her weekends and claims she has many admirers. She's a whiz at Maths.

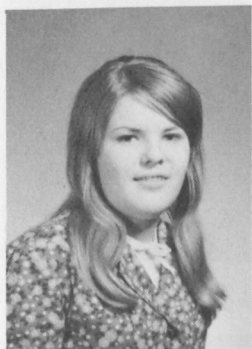

JOHNNY REIMER:

Johnny prefers being a "live chicken" to being a "dead hero". This explains his ability to at all times remain a step ahead of Willie. Quiet and reserved.

BRIAN SCHROEDER:

He talks hockey, thinks hockey and dreams hockey, but "when will I ever get to play it?" Plans to bless the Toronto Maple Leaf's with his appearance in the near future.

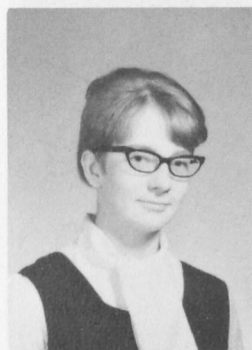

HELEN KRAHN:

A real "Indian giver". She realizes that she doesn't have to work hard to keep her honourable position in front. Her desk is a part-time confectionery stand.

HENRY WIEBE:

His favourite pastime is annoying other people. He has a dry sense of humour and is second only to Willie, in physical superiority.

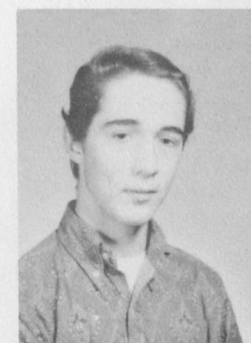

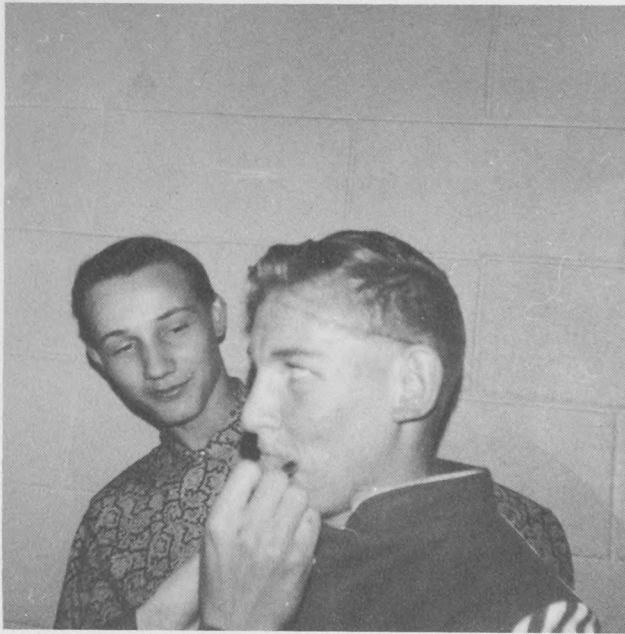

HILDA WIENS:

Supplies the girls with her delicious baking for the afternoon "hen parties". Takes her studies seriously, and it shows in her marks.

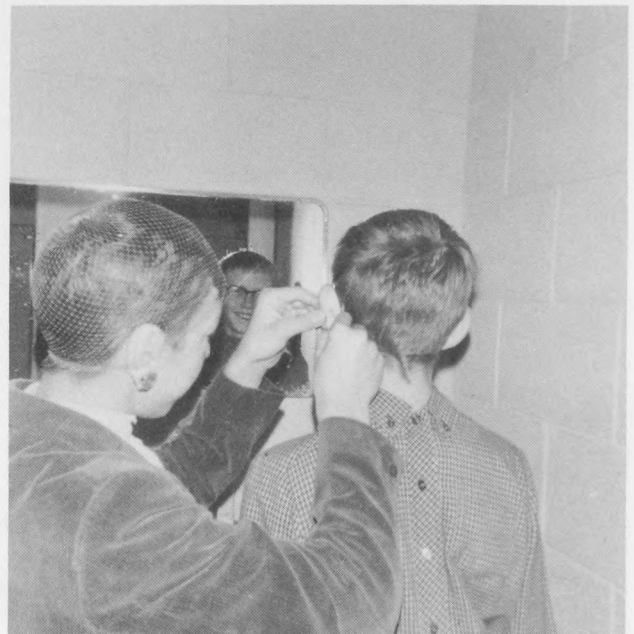

JAMES BLOCK:

When James becomes tired of school, and school becomes tired of James; then James will, without any hesitation, evacuate the premises.

Grade eleven "garbage collector" when ever essay-day rolls around. Recently traded in his convertible for a Swinging Firebird. Immensely interested in politics, and tries to figure out the motives behind Bobby Kennedy's political moves.

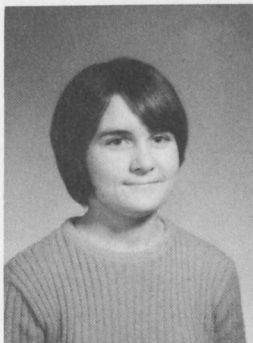

MARILYN LADOBRUK:

A little bundle of nervous energy. Good, conscientious student — although a bit “scatter-brained” in class at times. There is never a quiet moment when she’s around. A rabid MONKEE fan.

ROGER NOVAK:

Heard miles away by the clicking of his heels on the floor. Often seen with Andrew. Participates in all sports.

MARIE FRIESEN:

Our “freshie queen”. Usually spends her “blues” with Barbie. An active promoter of inter-student social relationships. A real “Romeo and Juliet” fan.

ANDREW WIEBE:

Grade nine “veteran”. Small in stature but big in spirit! The “general” of his class. Favorite pastime is playing guitar.

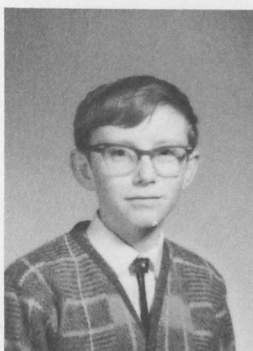

BARBIE WARKENTIN:

Has discovered this year that the world population is made up partly of boys. Favorite pastime is riding horses or motorcycles. She enjoys all subjects but loves study periods best.

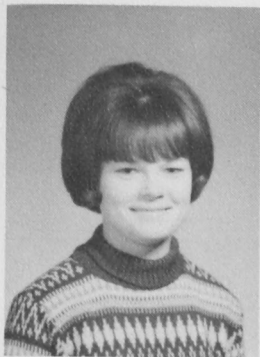

GORDON PYLYPUIK:

Always heard when he shouldn’t be. Finds an argument with one of the teachers very stimulating. Talks much but mostly in monosyllables. Might follow in Red Skelton’s footsteps.

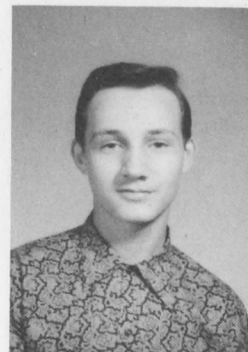

PETER WARKENTIN:

Tries very hard to better his grades. Is very talkative when the teachers aren’t around. Likes to annoy girls by scratching on the blackboard.

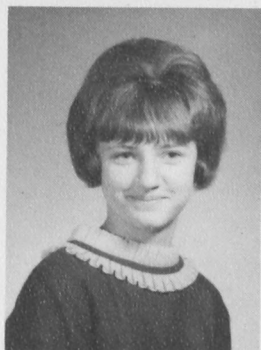

DIANNE KYWERIGA:

Finds German difficult to read and still more difficult to understand. Spends her spare time at school with Rose.

Hopes to succeed in school without really trying. Usually seen with a story book during class-time as a result he's widely read. Says he enjoys school but wouldn't want to live there.

GLORIA DYCK:

Often seen going uptown before Morning Assembly. Her sporadic attendance never ceases to surprise the teachers. Content to lose herself in books.

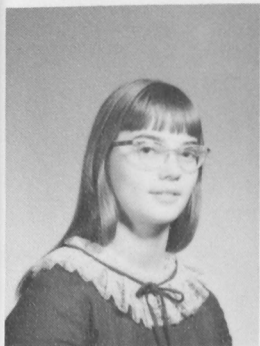

EDWARD WIENS:

Wonders what he is doing here. Takes a daily walk uptown with Harvey. Has trouble pronouncing German but nothing stops him once the German class is over. Hobby: hunting.

MARY KLASSEN:

Usually ends up fighting with the boys even though she tries hard not too. She takes her studies quite seriously. Enjoys reading and watching T.V. in her spare time.

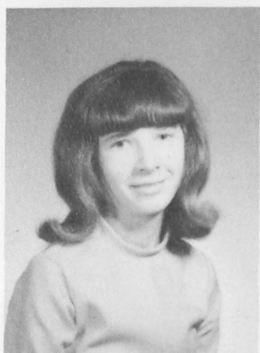

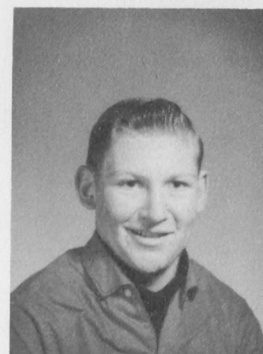

ELIZABETH HEESE:

Friendly, quiet and studious. Always first in class. Participates in all sports. An excellent student and well-liked.

HARVEY WIEBE:

Shy and quiet only when one of the teachers is present. A member of the "Bus Gang".

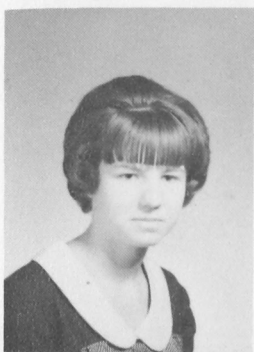

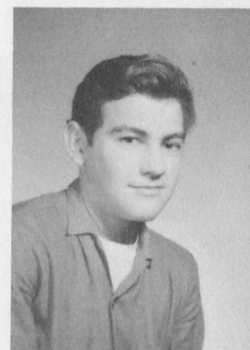

HILDA ESAU:

Is usually seen before heard. She is quiet and spends most of her time reading and studying. Often seen "tailing" Ann.

ERNIE BEZDITNY:

Striving to pass his grade for the second time. Thinks school is a Nuisance. Fate: farmer.

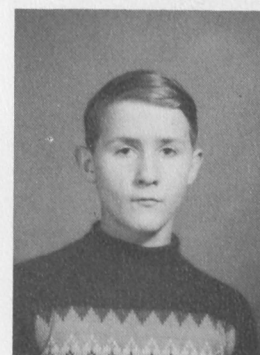

ANN UNRAU:

Asks the teachers questions only when she's in the mood for it. Chums with Agatha. Came to us from Tolstoi.

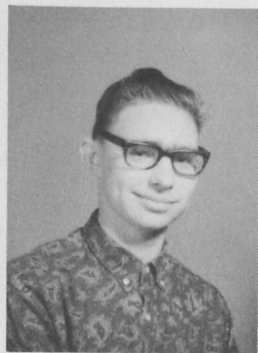

JOHN HIEBERT:

Makes it a habit of coming to school late. Works only as hard as he has to. Seldom heard and seldom seen.

MARGARET WIEBE:

Prefers dressing in black. Makes daily excursions into town at noon. The only thing to do with food is to eat it!

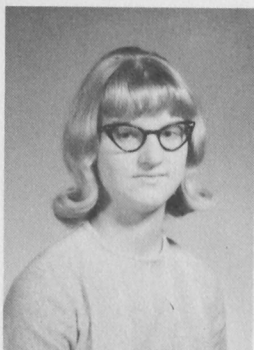

RON WYCHENKA:

Greets everyone with a smile. Keeps in shape by taking a daily walk uptown by himself.

ANN DURKSEN:

Came to us from South America, but finds Manitoba "airs" quite pleasant. She is very quiet and lives in the realm of books. Is an authority on German.

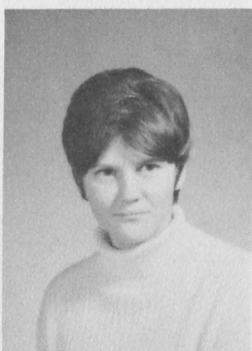

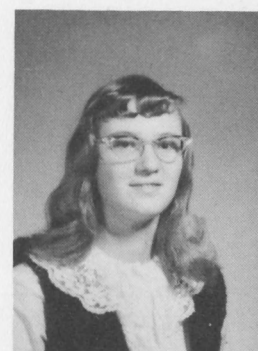

MARY DYCK:

Occupies the back seat with pleasure. Argues with Wanda once the teachers leave the classroom.

MARTHA DYCK:

Firmly resists any pushing around from the guys. A regular I.S.C.F. supporter.

VALERIE CHORNOBOY:

Quiet and reserved. Has private discussions with Mary during Classtime.

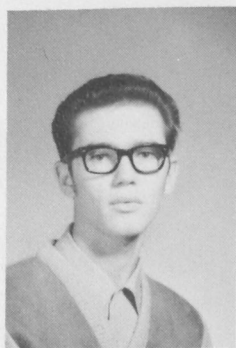

JOHANNA BRAUN:

Kind and friendly to everyone. Does well in her work but does still better in sports.

AGATHA HARDER:

Overcomes her shyness during the break. Likes sports. Does not believe in a "weaker sex". Has become quite at home in our school.

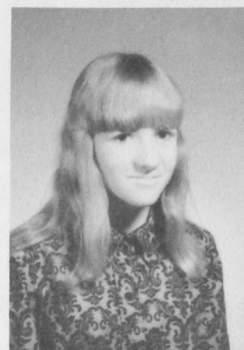

WALTER KLASSEN:

"Jockeys" with Andrew for "leadership" of the grade 9's. Beats him out occasionally when driving up with his Dad's Chrysler. Enjoys hunting and driving. Takes his work quite seriously.

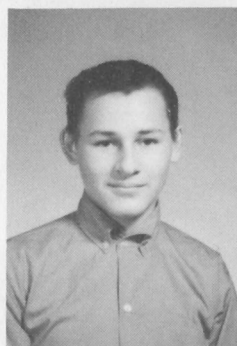

HILDEGARDE DOERKSEN:

Takes school life in full stride and seldom complains. Believes that experience is the school of all knowledge. Affectionately referred to as "Our Twiggy", in male circles.

ROSE CHERNECKI:

SUSIE SCHELLENBERG:

Breaks the dullness of classtime by asking teachers funny questions. Her ambition is to be a nurse.

MARLENE GOERTZEN:

Is quiet and reserved until the break. Reads a lot of library books. Is usually seen going up-town with Wanda at noon. Volleyball or basketball doesn't interest her.

We are very thankful to God for the way in which he has worked this year. We have felt his nearness in each of our meetings. We have meetings on every Tuesday at noon. We have speakers, buzz groups, panel discussions, and about two socials a year. In November we had a scavenger hunt. We are planning a skating party for February, and also a film. We thank each one of you for your prayers.

Irma Froese (President)

Sports Committee

Standing: Jim Mykytuik, Brian Schroeder, Bob Senkiw.
Sitting: Audrey Hildebrand, John Mykytuik (convener), Mr. Peters (staff advisor).

SPORTS REPORT

The sports program began with the football season and once again Grunthal proved to have, not only brawn, but brain, by soundly defeating Niverville two games to nothing. Due to bad weather conditions we were unable to continue with the game of football.

Ending our second half of the school year, we have organized and scheduled a number of basketball games with the same previously mentioned schools. We are hoping for a well played game against each of the schools and, of course, to do our best to come up on top.

All in all we have established ourselves in the sports department this year rather successfully and I wish the best of luck for our future development in sports.

John Mykytuik (convener)

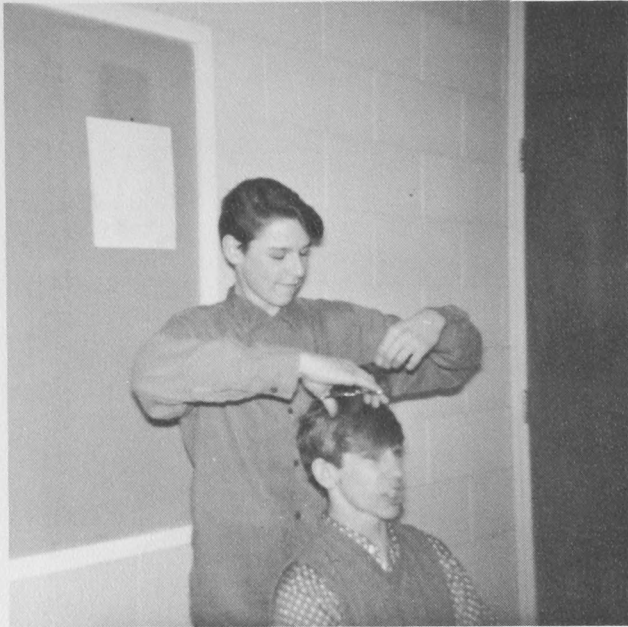

COACH'S REPORT

From a coach's viewpoint the sports activities which the students participated in were fairly successful. Up to this point in the season, all teams, either finished in first place in their respective league division or finished with a winning record. The sports year again started with football. The Grunthal team, coached by Mr. Aaron Redekop, played two games against Niverville. In both games, our team won in relatively easy fashion.

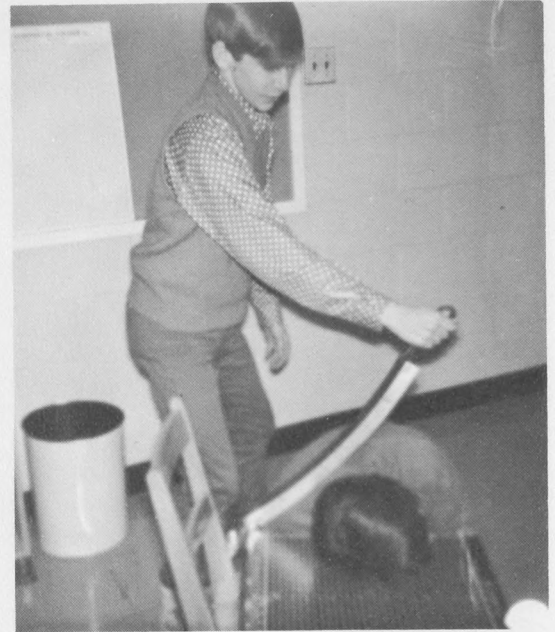

Grunthal Collegiate, entered three teams in the Hanover Volleyball League; that is, one team in each of the three divisions. The Senior Girls team and the Junior Boys team both finished in first place, while the Senior Boys team finished in second place after losing two very close contested series to Landmark.

In conclusion, I would like to express my appreciation to all team members for their individual, as well as team efforts. Each one responded very well to coaching and showed a great deal of enthusiasm and spirit which made the coaching so much easier. I would also like to thank the cheerleaders whose cheering seemed to give the boys that extra desire and fight they needed to win their games.

Cheerleaders

Top to bottom: Marilyn Ladobruk, Julianne Yurkowski, Shirl Holme, Doreen Maczuga (captain), Audrey Hildebrand, Barbara Guenther, Jessie Braun.

This year the cheerleaders decided to raise some money to buy sweaters to complete their uniform. They held a bake sale on December 9, and some Gr. XII boys circulated a football pool for this purpose. It was a financial success and the sweaters were purchased. The remainder will be used to buy uniforms for our Junior boys next year. Other plans for raising money for the school are still on the drawing board.

The main function of the cheerleaders is to instill more school spirit in the team and also to "pep up" the rest of the student body with pep rallies. Their efforts have been rewarded with success.

CHOIR

Drop into the Grade 12 classroom during the last period on the morning of Day Six and you'll see some fifty enthusiastic girls of Grunthal Collegiate trying to keep up with the man up front who is waving his arms at them. Believe it or not, they're singing. Don't be amazed if you don't understand them: they might be singing in Italian or some other foreign language.

Our first job of the year was to get ready for graduation in October. At this occasion the girls sang "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee" and "O Jesus, I Have Promised".

Then, during the course of the year, the choir has been working on folk-songs of different lands and more modern songs about far-away places. It was an enjoyable (though certainly not effortless) tour.

Next year we expect to sing at the "Met" in New York.
